

Master Szesko is currently employed as a deputy Sheriff for Belmont County Ohio serving the community as an officer of the law. In addition, he has dedicated 17 years with the local SWAT Team. He serves both as an officer and self-defense instructor for other members of the SWAT team and deputy officers of the sheriff's department. He willingly puts his life in harm's way every day he puts on the uniform to protect and serve his community. When he is not working as an officer of the law, Master Szesko exemplifies the way of TAEKWON-DO. He has put demos on for various aspects of the community. Those demos include the Nursing Homes for the elderly; the library for the children and some sporting events such as the minor league baseball team, the Wildthings, from Washington, PA. Master Szesko also gives back not only to his community but to national organizations like St. Junes Childrens Hospital by putting together a yearly fund raiser to help those less fortunate. He also has had fundraisers for The Heart Fund and Relay For Life. Master Szesko also is a state certified instructor for the Self-Defense tactics for Belmont County Courts and the County Juvenile Division.
