

A Blue Cottage Taekwon-Do Group

Demonstrating Courtesy:

1. Have good manners - a student should be polite and respectful both inside and outside of the Dojang.
2. Show social responsibility - a student should not pester, or bully anyone. There should be no inappropriate actions or comments. Students must respect the privacy others and commit to keeping each other safe (be a champion of freedom and justice).
3. Show equality and tolerance - a student must never discriminate against anyone regardless of their sex, age, race or lifestyle preferences. While we may line up in order of rank, this is only a statement of how a student has progressed in the Art.
4. Be helpful - a student should help as much as possible. This may be helping others to improve techniques or tie their belts, holding doors open, helping to carry equipment and so on.
5. Be respectful - a student must follow the rules and etiquette of Taekwon-Do. A student should not be disrespectful to any individual or martial art.
